FINANCIAL CONSULTATION REFERRALS

Money stress follows you everywhere. We can help.

Money stress doesn't stay home when you walk out the door. Revive connects you with highly trained financial counselors who listen to your situation and help you find a way forward.

Services include:

- Consulting with a highly trained financial counselor
- Ongoing support for the same issue for up to 90 days
- Connection to counseling if your concern is causing stress or overwhelm — your Care Coordinator can help identify resources

Financial resources for:

- Budgeting
- College and retirement funding
- Credit card debt, management, and consolidation
- Credit counseling
- Identity theft
- Tax planning and preparation

Please note that requests for financial assistance, such as loans or utilities, are not covered; however, we can provide community resources for those inquiries.

CONFIDENTIAL:

Your privacy is protected. Nothing is shared without your permission.

COST:

Financial consultation referrals are a free service paid for by your employer. You are responsible for any costs incurred by the service provider.
